professional curriculum whose profiles are suited for the activities to be performed, can submit their applications. In the event the doctorate was awarded by a foreign higher education institution, said degree must comply with the provisions of Portuguese law on the recognition of foreign degrees. For those purposes, the requirements described in point no. 11 of this notice must be considered.

5.1 General and Specific Requirements

The general admission requirements are those defined in point 5 above. Regarding the specific terms, candidates must have the following characteristics:

- a) R&D activity of at least 5 years (years dedicated to PhD research activities included);
- b) Previous experience in R&D in the area of food product development, particularly in the areas of fermentation and plant-based foods, with emphasis on cereals and legumes;
- c) Sound understanding and practical experience in the development and implementation of analytical techniques and characterization (nutritional, biological and sensorial) of fermented foods;
- d) Knowledge of ingredients for fermented foods formulation, particularly exopolysaccharide-producing starter cultures and proteins, and the design of protocols to assess the technological and functional impact of different ingredients;
- e) Excellent communication, interinstitutional, interpersonal, and teamwork skills;
- f) Strong statistical and mathematical aptitude;
- g) Strong organizational, leadership, initiative, time management and problem-solving skills;
- h) Strong sense of personal integrity and responsible conduct of research;
- i) Strong work, autonomy, and responsibility skills;
- j) Proficiency of written and spoken English.

6. Selection Process

Pursuant to article 5 of RJEC, selection is to be made based on candidate scientific and curricular career evaluation.

7. Evaluation criteria

Assessment criteria: scientific production and its relevance, participation in scientific projects and congresses, student supervision, scientific dissemination actions, transfer of knowledge, other relevant activities and experiences. The evaluation process includes an interview with the candidates.

Candidate final classification system shall be given on a scale of 0 to 100. The value is calculated by weighing in each factor as follows, always considering that for each item only the activity relevant to the scientific field of the present tender will be considered:

7.1 Scientific and curricular background (PC)

a) Scientific and technological production: 60%;

This evaluation will consider scientific articles in ISI journals, technical journals, papers published in events, books and chapters, oral presentations at events and prizes.

b) Applied or practice-based research activities: 30%;

This includes: (i) coordination and participation in R&D projects as project team member; (ii) performance of scientific services and technology transfer; (iii) patents or other R&D and innovation indicators.

c) Knowledge extension and dissemination activities: 10%;

The evaluation of participation in science management and knowledge dissemination activities, including the organization of conferences, symposia and scientific cooperation activities. Interaction with industry in the context of the development of innovation projects or scientific services, or others considered relevant by the candidate, will also be evaluated.

d) Interview (E).

The candidates who rank in the first three positions will be interviewed (E), to clarify aspects related to the results of their research.

Applicants who are interviewed will be assigned a new classification in addition to the initial one that will be based on the following formula:

$$\text{Final classification} = 90\% \text{ PC} + 10\% \text{ E}$$

8. Tender Selection Panel

Pursuant to article 13 of RJEC, the tender selection panel shall be formed by:

President of the Jury: Prof. Dr. Ana Maria Gomes; Other members: Prof. Dr. Manuela Pintado, Prof. Dr. Freni Tavarina

9. Deliberation

12. Application deadline

Candidates may submit their applications in the terms mentioned in the previous point, from April 13th, 2022, until April 28rd 2022 (5 pm Lisbon time).

All candidates who formalize their applications in an improper way or fail to prove the requirements imposed by this tender are excluded from admission. In case of doubt, the panel is entitled to request any candidate to present further documentation supporting their statements. Failure to submit any clarifications, information or documents that are requested within 5 working days means the withdrawal of the application.

False statements provided by the candidates shall be punished by law.

13. Privacy Policy

Universidade Católica Portuguesa is the controller responsible for the processing of Personal Data in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 – General Regulation on Data Protection.

The personal data processed in the scope of this tender procedure is processed within the framework of said tender procedure only, and will be processed by Universidade Católica Portuguesa with the purpose of verifying the fulfillment, by the candidates, of the assumptions established in the applicable legislation for their contracting. Opposition to the processing of data by the candidates will make it impossible to accept the application and, therefore, to analyze and evaluate it.

The personal data of the Data Subject, if it be indispensable for the fulfillment of the obligations of Universidade Católica Portuguesa, may be conveyed to third parties, namely to the Financing Entities identified in this announcement.

The data retention period shall correspond to the legally defined period of five years.

The Data Subject is entitled to oppose to the collection and processing of data, has the right to verification, the right to rectification, the right to deletion, and the right to restriction of processing of the data collected.
